- ❖ Incoming Gold Board to take over BoG's gold purchases role – Governor: The Governor of the Bank of Ghana, Dr. Johnson Asiamah, has noted that the government's soon-to-be-established Gold Board will handle Ghana's gold purchases. According to him, the Central Bank will relinquish its role of purchasing gold to the board when it is established. The Gold Board is anticipated to create a structured framework for managing the country's resources. The board will improve transparency, regulate transactions, and optimize gold purchase for national reserves. (Ghanaweb)
- ❖ Minerals Commission to decentralize operations with world-class infrastructure across Ghana: The Minerals Commission has embarked on an ambitious project to develop world-class mining infrastructure in regions and districts of Ghana. The initiative aims to transform the country's mining industry, driving economic growth, creating jobs, and improving lives. Mr. Martin Kwaku Ayisi, Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of Minerals Commission said the project would involve the development of modern laboratories and testing facilities, advanced geological mapping and surveying technology, state-of-the-art mining equipment and machinery, efficient transportation networks and logistics facilities, and enhanced safety and security features for mining operations. He said the Commission had built offices in Kumasi, Tamale, Damango, Bolga, Obuasi and other locations across the country. The CEO emphasized that the expansion we expected to bring the Commission's services closer to mining communities, enabling them to access support and resources more easily. (Ghana News Agency)
