

NEWS HEADLINES

- AGA to invest USD1 billion in Ghana: The Group CEO of AngloGold Ashanti Ltd. (AGA), Alberto Calderon has reaffirmed the company's strong financial commitment in the country saying, the board and executives have the trust and confidence to now invest more than USD1 billion in the mining operations in Ghana. The deputy minister responsible for mines, George Mireku Duker, has reiterated that the government through the ministry is creating the enabling environment for mining companies to thrive and AngloGold Ashanti remains an integral part. The deputy minister said that the government's dealings with large scale mining firms will be anchored on transparency and accountability and will ensure there is a win-win situation for both parties. (Norvanreports)
- BoG widens its scope on cryptocurrency: The Bank of Ghana (BoG) has assured stakeholders of its preparedness to sanitize the digital space with respect to cryptocurrency. The central bank admits that in the initial stages of the new digital currency, there was a gap, however, the regulator has braced itself to make it cleaner while building public interest. The Assistant Director in charge of Fintech and Innovation at BoG, Clerance Blay, asserts that based on BoG's regular surveillance and global monitoring, the Bank decided to explore central banks digital currency in deep. The central bank currently believes that the industry is moving towards the deeper financial space. However, in April, 2022, the central bank issued cautionary directives to banks and other financial entities in its dealings in crypto currency trade and other unregulated investment schemes. (Citibusinessnews)

TREASURIES YIELD CURVE

Disclaimer - SIC Brokerage and its employees do not make any guarantee or other promise as to any results that may be obtained from using our content. No one should make any investment decision without first consulting his or her own Investment advisor and conducting his or her own research and due diligence. SIC Brokerage disclaims any and all liabilities in the event that any Information, commentary, analysis, opinions, advice and/or recommendations prove to be inaccurate, incomplete or unreliable, or result in any investment or other losses.