- ❖ Ghana's Economy to Expand by 4.8% in 2024, 5.1% in 2025 Driven by Strong Private Consumption and Investment World Bank: Ghana's economy is projected to expand by 4.8% in 2024, with further growth of 5.1% expected in 2025-2026, according to the World Bank's October 2024 Africa Pulse Report. The report cites strong private consumption and capital deepening as key drivers of growth, positioning Ghana alongside other West African nations, excluding Nigeria, which are forecast to record similar economic performance over the same period. The outlook for the West African Economic and Monetary Union (WAEMU), comprising French-speaking countries, is even more optimistic, with growth set to reach 5.7% in 2024 and accelerate to 6.2% in 2025-2026. - * World Bank Cuts Africa GDP Forecast as Sudan War Stunts Region: The World Bank downgraded its economic growth forecast for sub-Saharan Africa as a raging civil war in Sudan stalled activity and held back the entire region. Sub-Saharan Africa will likely grow 3% this year, somewhat lower than an April forecast of 3.4%, the Washington-based lender said in its Africa Pulse report published Monday. The region's economy expanded 2.4% in 2023. The slower growth rate was largely blamed on the brutal conflict in Sudan which erupted 18 months ago and has continued to escalate. The fighting has displaced around 11 million of the nation's 48 million people, with many forced into bordering nations, according to the United Nations. (Norvanreports)
