Ken Ofori-Atta sets-up technical committee to engage individual bondholders: The Ministry of Finance, led by Ken Ofori-Atta, has set up a technical committee to engage individual bondholders on their inclusion in the domestic debt exchange programme. The technical committee is to come up with some work and based on those analysis, there will be a position that the Finance Ministry will take. He remarked, the ministry will come up with its recommendations jointly and there is believe that they will all find a reason in trying to exempt the individual bondholders. He further noted that government is fully committed to taking measures that will lessen the burden on individual bondholders who have expressed worry about the current structure of the debt exchange programme.
