- ❖ President Mahama Signs 24-Hour Economy Authority Bill into Law, Paving Way for Policy Rollout: President John Dramani Mahama has enacted the 24-Hour Economy Authority Bill, enabling the implementation of the government's 24-hour economy policy. Approved by Parliament on February 6, 2026, the law creates a central coordinating body tasked with overseeing nationwide economic activities around the clock, in collaboration with government and private sectors. The policy aims to transform Ghana's economic framework by promoting continuous operations in various sectors, enhancing job creation, productivity, and infrastructure use. President Mahama highlighted this as a significant step towards actual implementation, with anticipated benefits including increased economic activity, income, and competitiveness in the region. - ❖ GRA to Enforce Physical and Electronic Devices Act in 2026 to Automate VAT System: In a recent announcement, Anthony Kwasi Sarpong, Commissioner-General of the Ghana Revenue Authority (GRA), revealed plans to implement the Physical and Electronic Devices Act in 2026 to reform the Value Added Tax (VAT) system. The Act will facilitate the deployment of fiscal monitoring devices in retail outlets, enabling real-time transaction tracking to enhance VAT administration. Currently, VAT performance is at 40%, indicating significant untapped potential. He urged businesses to meet their VAT obligations to aid national development and expressed confidence in achieving revenue targets through diligent efforts. (Norvanreports)
