Government will protect public jobs under IMF programme – Finance Ministry: Government has reiterated its commitment to protect public sector jobs and social investment under an International Monetary Fund (IMF) programme. This, according to government, will be achieved by ensuring that social investments and job creation initiatives in the public sector are not affected by the negotiations with the Fund for a support programme. Dr. John Kumah, Deputy Minister of Finance gave the assurance, adding that the Fund is aware of ongoing challenges in the global economy and its impact on Ghana, hence it will not recommend any conditionalities that will impose further restrictions on job creation and social investments.
