- GSE to rollout ESG reporting standards by year-end: The Ghana Stock Exchange (GSE) will introduce dedicated guidelines for standards on Environmental, Social, and Governance (ESG) reporting for listed companies by the end of the year, its Deputy Managing Director, Abena Amoah, has indicated. The move represents an additional layer in efforts by the regulators and operators of the Accra bourse to deepen capital market operations. It is expected to significantly expand the breadth, specificity and rigour of corporate transparency and encourage sustainable investment. According to Ms. Amoah, the reporting standard will not be mandatory for all issuers. (thebftonline)
