BoG piloting offline version of eCedi – BoG Governor: Governor of the Bank of Ghana (BoG), Dr. Ernest Addison has revealed that the central bank is currently piloting an offline version of the Digital Cedi (eCedi) to be used for consecutive payments in areas yet to be connected to digital and internet infrastructure. Usage and uptake of the eCedi offline version is being piloted in Sefwi Asafo in the Western North Region, where select users in that community have been using it for daily purchases such as for food and groceries, this according to the Governor. After the pilot, critical usage data that will be obtained will inform decisions about the eCedi’s future. (thebftonline)

GCB, AfDB sign credit pacts to promote renewable energy projects: GCB Bank PLC. (GCB) and Africa Development Bank (AfDB) have signed a USD13.7mn credit pact and EUR1.0mn grant agreement to support local businesses towards the development of energy efficiency and renewable energy projects. The agreements and projects are part of the Sustainable Use of Natural Resources and Energy Finance (SUNREF) Ghana, aimed at promoting investment in sustainable energy and environmental protection among private sector players in developing economies. Under the agreement, GCB and SUNREF will continue to offer competitive loans and technical assistance for structuring green investment to companies, organizations, individuals and households.
